Sutures

Sutures are a very important part of surgical world. It helps to close the wound of your skin and tissues. There are many types of suture some of them are absorbable and non-absorbable.

Western Trading Company provides the best sutures of Covidien aka Medtronic in Ahmedabad, Gujarat.

The V-Loc™ wound closure system is a unique and innovative technology that eliminates the requirement to tie knots, in order to close incisions up to 50% quicker without diminishing strength and security.^{1,2}

Its dual-angle barbs allow suture to pass easily through structure in one path — but reduce it from falling back through soft tissue.

The barbs maintain wound surfaces together and deliver pressure along the entire amount of the suture, without seeking knots to protected the wound.

Created for protected, quickly, and effective 3,4 incision closure for the patients.
